MORNINGSTAR COMMENTS

The following excerpts were taken from the Morningstar analysis regarding the CollegeCounts Direct and Advisor Plans in their annual ratings ➔

“Union Bank & Trust took over this plan in June 2010 from Van Kampen and immediately upgraded the program.”

“...both plans are much improved following changes to underlying funds and lowered fees.”

2010 ALABAMA TAX DEDUCTION REPORTING

If you have contributed to your CollegeCounts 529 Fund account in 2010 up to $10,000 of your contributions are tax deductible ($5,000 for single filers)¹. Check with your tax professional and the Tax Center & Resources on the CollegeCounts site for additional information regarding 2010 tax reporting.

This is a great time to start contributing to CollegeCounts to benefit from the 2011 Alabama income tax deduction. Don't put off your contributions – Start Now!

2010 GIFT TAX REPORTING

If you made larger gifts for 2010 (ie: typically over $13,000), make sure to mention them to your tax professional so they can determine if any special IRS filings are required.

If you took advantage of the special 5-year front-loading election allowed for 529 plans, please notify your tax professional so they can prepare any necessary Gift Tax Return. The due date for filing is April 18, 2011.

2010 TAX REPORTING FORM 1099-Q

If a distribution was taken from a CollegeCounts account in 2010, the recipient will receive a Form 1099-Q from us later this month. If the distribution was payable to the Account Owner, the 1099-Q will be mailed to the Account Owner. 1099-Q's for distributions payable to either the beneficiary or school will be mailed to the beneficiary.

We recommend that you keep your 1099-Q as well as all invoices, receipts, and any documentation regarding qualified college costs with your tax papers in the event you ever receive a tax question from the IRS or Alabama Department of Revenue.

INVEST YOUR TAX REFUND

If you will be receiving a Federal or State tax refund, consider depositing it into your CollegeCounts account. Your Alabama and Federal tax form will provide a section that allows you to have your refund deposited directly into a bank account.
